"WILD GIRL" IS

NATIVE OF

ARIZONA

John Pike, Snake Bitten and Near Death, Admits His Identity.Tucson, Ariz., Nov. 18.—From a telegram received yesterday morning by Sheriff Pacheco, from Mrs.
Charles Glenn, of Globe, it appears that John Pike, the Australian "Wild Girl," who charmed snakes at a cheap show in this city, and who was bitten recently by one of the reptiles, is an Arizona boy.The telegram which Sheriff Pacheco received reads as follows:
"Wire me the address and condition of John Pike, known as the 'Australian Wild Girl,' who was bitten by a moccasin snake. Wire immediately.
Shall I come? His sister, Mrs. Charles Glenn."Sheriff Pacheco, in compliance with the request made in the telegram, at once ascertained from Pike's doctor the young man's condition.
The physician stated that he was steadily improving and would recover from the effects of the poisonous bite.This information was wired to the anxious sister in Globe and nothing has been heard from her since that time.It was the opinion here, until the receipt of the telegram, that Pike was a California man, who, being down on his luck, took up with the snake show in an endeavor to earn a little money. It now develops that he is an Arizona boy and has other relatives in this territory besides the sister, Mrs. Glenn, who resides in Globe.The two proprietors of the show have left the city, evidently fearing that they could be held to blame if young Pike died from the effects of the snake bite. This, of course, could not be done, but the two men at the head of the snake show did not realize that fact and have skipped, shaking the dust of Tucson from their feet.
Some difficulty was experienced by the local officers in collecting the license due the county for the operation of the show, but after Sheriff Pacheco had informed them that unless they paid up at once he would close their place, they came through with the required amount without further trouble.He Fought at Gettysburg.
David Parker, of Fayette, N. Y., who lost a foot at Gettysburg, writes:
"Electric Bitters have done me more good than any medicine I ever took.
For several years I had stomach trouble, and paid out much money for medicine to little purpose, until I began taking Electric Bitters.
I would not take $500 for what they have done for me." Grand tonic for the aged and for female weakness.
Great alterative and body builder; sure cure for lame joints and weak kidneys. Guaranteed by all druggists.

A Reliable Remedy for Croup.

With the dry, cold weather of the early winter months, parents of croupy children should be on the alert for ominous symptoms. The cause for anxiety, however, when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is kept in the home.
If this medicine is given as soon as a child becomes hoarse or even after the croupy cough has appeared, the attack may be ward off. Mrs. S. Rosenthal, Turin, Michigan, says: "We have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for ourselves and children for several years and like it very much. I think it is the only remedy for croup and can highly recommend it." For sale by all druggists.
